Secret World

Secret World presents ethnic and acoustic performances from around the globe, singled out from rare or even secret traditions. Examples are ritual music from Laos and Tibet, Javanese Gamelan and sacred vocal music from Bali, Balafon from Burkina Faso and rare musical traditions from India. Secret World includes trance reinterpretations of the ancient Tarantella ritual by Antonio Infantino, east Cuban Son by "Club Musical Oriente Cubano" and the award-winning "Naked Spirit" by the extraordinary Tuvan singer Sainkho.

The artist roster also includes the Mancuso Brothers who have become cultural icons of their native Sicily though numerous international concerts, media accolades and their appearance in the film "The Talented Mr. Ripley." Acclaimed polyphonic treatments of traditional songs have earned the female vocal ensemble "Farualla" the reputation of being "the Zap-Mamas of the Mediterranean".

Secret World broaches innovative experiments in which two cultures, geographically distant from one another yet musically and spiritually alike, draw inspiration from each other and create something entirely new for the first time, as in the case of "Meeting of Angels," featuring Gregorian chant and classical music from northern India interpreted by the Gilles Binchois Ensemble and Ustad Nishat Khan. The recording "Brizzi do Brasil" sees contemporary Italian classical composer Aldo Brizzi bringing together leading popular Brazilian and Portuguese singers.

La serie Secret World propone produzioni di musica etnica ed acustica da tutto il mondo, scelte fra tradizioni ed esecuzioni rare e/o poco conosciute. Esempi ne sono alcune musiche rituali del Laos e del Tibet, il Gamelan Balinese e dell'isola di Giava, il Balafon del Burkina Faso o certe recondite tradizioni dell'India, come la musica dei Bauls o le virtuose serie "Master Players" di musica classica indiana. La serie Secret World comprende la reinterpretazione di Antonio Infantino in chiave Trance dell'antico rituale della Tarantella, il Son dell'oriente cubano del "Club Musical Oriente Cubano" e il premiato "Naked Spirit" della straordinaria cantante della Repubblica di Tuva, Sainkho.

Possiamo inoltre trovare arrangiamenti acustici di canzoni e melodie tradizionali della Sicilia, Sardegna e di altre zone d'Italia. Infatti l'elenco degli artisti della serie Secret World include i Fratelli Mancuso, Siciliani, considerati icone culturali della loro terra natia, noti per i numerosi concerti in tutto il mondo e per l'apparizione nel film "Il Talento del signor Ripley", e le "Farualla", acclamato ensemble vocale femminile a-cappella di Bari.

La Secret World Series propone però anche esperimenti innovativi, in cui spesso due culture geograficamente lontane ma musicalmente e spiritualmente affini si ispirano a vicenda, creando qualcosa di nuovo, come nel caso del canto gregoriano e della musica classica dell'India del Nord magistralmente interpretati dall'Ensemble Gilles Binchois e da Ustad Nishat Khan. La produzione "Brizzi do Brasil" vede il compositore italiano Aldo Brizzi unire le più grandi Star Brasiliane e Portoghesi.

Dedicated to contemporary world music, the Roots Series features innovative productions and creative compilations. The series opens with African Angels, a tribute to some of the finest African artists currently on the scene, and with Celtic Angels, a true who's who of contemporary Celtic music and a touching celebration of Celtic sound. Roots focuses on emerging trends in world music with the latest hybrid styles, rhythms and state of the art production techniques, such as "Black Bombay," a trip-hop/world music production enriched with Hindu vocals.

In-house projects include overtone/throat singers from Tuva, the group In a Split Second, and the Celtic female vocalist and composer Surabhi. "Casa Italia" and "Viva Cuba Libre" (with its outstanding collection of photos in a hardcover CD book format), provide up-to-date musical panoramas of distinct cultures.

Purely traditional world music will continue to be housed in our Secret World Series, so Roots is our way of growing with the changes in contemporary music, as much a creative process for us as it is for the artists involved.

Dedicata alla World Music contemporanea, la collana Roots presenta nuove produzioni ed esclusive compilazioni tematiche. African Angels, prima uscita della collana, è un tributo ad alcuni dei più grandi musicisti africani contemporanei, seguita da Celtic Angels, che raccoglie gli artisti più rappresentativi della musica celtica contemporanea ed una toccante celebrazione delle sonorità celtiche. Caratteristica di Roots è l'attento interesse nei confronti di trends emergenti, che si avvalgono di contaminazioni stilistiche e di tecniche di produzione fra le più innovative nel campo della World Music, come "Black Bombay", in cui si incontrano il genere Trip-Hop / World e voci Hindu.

Roots inoltre include alcuni progetti con i canti bifonici di Tuva, il gruppo "In a Split Second", e con la cantautrice celtica Surabhi; "Casa Italia" e "¡Viva Cuba Libre!" (con la sua esauritiva collezione di foto in un formato CD-Book), forniscono un aggiornato quadro del panorama musicale di determinate culture.

Mentre la pura, tradizionale World Music continua ad essere inserita all'interno della collana Secret World Series, in Roots, attraverso un processo creativo che coinvolge la produzione e gli artisti in essa impegnati, permettiamo alla musica contemporanea di crescere e di stare al passo coi tempi.

Inner Arts

The Inner Arts Series presents highly creative projects and performances which stretch the boundaries of normal categorization. It's acoustic-instrumental, then ambient, then meditative music, then "Now Age" or rather, no age...

Featured are the double-bass player and composer Andrea Donati, Paolo Giaro with Krishna Bhatt on sitar and Debiprasad Gosh on sarod, the pianist Antonio Breschi, Auria Vizia, Adea, the Neji Trio and the Saphir String Quartet. Leading Italian arranger-trombonist-composer Fabio Forte creates a unique blend of 50'ies classic jazz, Indian textures and European melodies. The voice, songs and compositions of A. Virgilio Savona, founder of the world-renowned "Quartetto Cetra" in the fifties, are a musical reflexion of three decades Italian popular culture tinged with profound political and social involvement.

The music is in large part acoustic, its spirit joyful and refined; a cross-fertilization between East and West, North and South; acoustic and electronic; vocal and instrumental; improvisational and notated; spiritual and popular.

La collana Inner Arts propone una serie di progetti di alto livello che vanno oltre le normali categorizzazioni o etichette; si tratta di musica acustico-strumentale, ambientale, meditativa, "Now Age", ... o meglio senza tempo.

Spiccano le produzioni del contrabbassista e compositore Andrea Donati, Paolo Giaro con Krishna Bhatt al sitar e Debiprasad Gosh al sarod, il raffinato pianista Antonio Breschi, Auria Vizia, Adea, l'Ensemble Neji e il Saphir String Quartet. L'arrangiatore, trombonista e compositore Fabio Forte crea un mix unico di classici Jazz degli anni '50, strutture indiane e melodie europee, mentre le composizioni e la voce di Virgilio Savona, fondatore del famoso "Quartetto Cetra", sono l'espressione e la sintesi di oltre trent'anni di cultura popolare italiana unite ad un profondo coinvolgimento politico e sociale.

La musica è per lo più acustica, e lo spirito della collana si muove nell'ambito della musica dal linguaggio fruibile ma raffinato, nella dialettica continua fra Oriente e Occidente, fra Settentrione e Meridione, fra musica acustica ed elettronica, vocale e strumentale, fra improvvisazione e scrittura, fra musica colta e popolare.

New Music

The New Music Series presents performances by contemporary composers such as Arvo Pärt, Henrik Gorecki, Terry Riley, Steve Reich, Hans Otte, Michael Vetter and Astor Piazzolla. Younger, perhaps less known, though certainly no less interesting composers include Gianfranco Pernaichi, Ludovico Einaudi, Savio Riccardi and Thomas Fortmann.

We are pleased to present creative new ensembles and soloists such as harpist Cecilia Chailly and flutist Andrea Ceccomori, as well as Michael Vetter and Terry Riley, great interpreters of their own works, as is the eclectic pianist-composer-figurative artist Mark Kostabi.

The editorial line of the New Music series is addressed to all listeners interested in contemporary music and especially in the American minimalist movement and its European branches, in post-minimalism, neo-romanticism, and in particular to all forms of new sacred music.

La New Music Series propone produzioni di alcuni noti compositori contemporanei come Arvo Pärt, Henrik Gorecki, Terry Riley, Steve Reich, Hans Otte, Michael Vetter e Astor Piazzolla. Compositori più giovani, meno conosciuti, ma indubbiamente non meno interessanti quali Ludovico Einaudi, Savio Riccardi e Thomas Fortmann.

Siamo inoltre onorati di annoverare in questa collana altri grandi solisti quali l'arpista Cecilia Chailly e il flautista Andrea Ceccomori, Michael Vetter e Terry Riley, in qualità di grandi interpreti di se stessi, come l'eclettico pianista, compositore e artista figurativo Mark Kostabi.

La linea editoriale di questa collana si rivolge anche a tutti coloro che sono interessati alla musica contemporanea, nella fattispecie al movimento minimalista americano e alle sue varie ramificazioni, al postminimalismo, al neo-romanticismo ed in particolare a tutte le nuove forme di musica sacra.

Musica Antiqua Classica

The Classica Series includes new, never-before-recorded compositions of the past brought to light by noted musicologists and researchers, performances done on rare and precious instruments of the era, and comparisons and contrasts between two interpretations of the same music by the same musician from a distance of fifty years. Highlights of the series include the internationally-acclaimed volumes of "Music of Ancient Rome" performed by the ensemble Synaulia, a group of paleorganologists and musicians dedicated to the study of ancient music.

The celebrated "Music of Ancient Rome" recordings present a hypothetical reconstruction of the music of ancient Imperial Rome using original instruments constructed by musician and musicologist Walter Maioli and his research group. The first volume has been an international cultural event in news media and traditional record retail stores as well as in bookshops and museum stores. Its music has been featured in numerous films, including "Gladiator" (Dream/Works), Midsummer night's dream (Fox Searchlights Pictures), and "The Village" (Touchstone Pictures / Disney).

The second volume continues this unique collection of what is internationally recognized as being the most serious publication on ancient Roman music, a true example of living musical archeology.

La collana classica include composizioni del passato, mai registrate prima, riscoperte da famosi musicologi e ricercatori; interpretazioni in cui vengono impiegati rari e pregiati strumenti d'epoca e confronti fra due interpretazioni della stessa partitura. Di rilievo i primi due volumi del progetto sulla "Musica dell'Antica Roma", del gruppo Synaulia, formato da paleorganologi e musicisti studiosi di musica antica, che hanno riscosso un grande successo internazionale,

La rinomata serie di archeologia musicale "Musica dell'Antica Roma" rappresenta un'ipotetica ricostruzione della musica dell'Impero Romano utilizzando strumenti originali ricostruiti dal musicista e musicologo Walter Maioli e il suo gruppo di ricerca. Il primo volume dedicato agli strumenti a fiato, è stato un evento culturale di rilievo internazionale e numerosi films hanno utilizzato la sua musica all'interno delle loro colonne sonore tra cui "Il Gladiatore" (DreamWorks) "Sogno di una notte di Mezza estate" (Fox Searchlights Pictures) e "The Village" (Touchstone Pictures / Disney).

Il secondo volume, dedicato agli strumenti a corda, fa da seguito a questo unico progetto, internazionalmente riconosciuto come la più seria pubblicazione sulla musica dell'antica Roma, un esempio vivente di archeologia musicale.
